get along well with classmates Never/Rarely I have positive relationships with my teachers (I like them and they like me) Sometimes for a friend is sad, I know how to help them feel better for I do something that upsets someone else, I apologize Always/Almost Alway for I do something that upsets someone else, I apologize Always/Almost Alway for I do something that upsets someone else, I apologize Always/Almost Alway for I do something that upsets someone else, I apologize Always/Almost Alway for I have a problem with a friend, I can figure out a way to solve it that is good for everyone involved When it comes to group work, people can rely on me to do my part if I fail at something, I keep trying I believe that I can be successful in life Questions about emotions I am happy I am fustrated/mad/angry I am stressed/worried I am stressed/worried I am stressed/worried I am sad/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student if I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have elear goals for my future I have elear goals for my future I believe I can get good to college if I want to I believe I can get good to college if I want to I believe I in my lift who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teach	Basic Student Survey Questions have positive relationships with my teachers (I like them and they like me) fa fired is sad, I know how to help them feel better if a forend is sad, I know how to help them feel better if I do something that upsets someone else, I apologize Always/Almost Alway if I see someone being picked on or bullied I would try to help that person. When I am stressed, I know how to reduce stress and calm down if I have a problem with a friend, I can figure out a way to solve it that is good for everyone involved When it comes to group work, people can rely on me to do my part if I fail at something, I keep trying I believe that I can be successful in life Questions about emotions I am frustrated/mad/angry I am stressed/worried I am sad/down/lonely I am acaln/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school counselor to know?	Questions about social skills	Rating Scale
If a friend is sad, I know how to help them feel better If I do something that upsets someone else, I apologize If J do something that upsets someone else, I apologize If I see someone being picked on or bullied I would try to help that person. When I am stressed, I know how to reduce stress and calm down If I have a problem with a friend, I can figure out a way to solve it that is good for everyone involved when it comes to group work, people can rely on me to do my part If I fail at something, I keep trying I believe that I can be successful in life Questions about emotions I am happy I am stressed/worried I am sufd/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up. I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have pople in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things nough to college if I want to I believe I and go to college if I want to I believe I and go to college if I want to I believe I my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things nough that Help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one stringly on wish that J punings Elementary has? What is one stringly on wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school counselor to know?	I get along well with classmates	Never/Rarely
If I do something that upsets someone else, I apologize If I see someone being picked on or buillied I would try to help that person. When I am stressed, I know how to reduce stress and calm down If I have a problem with a friend, I can figure out a way to solve it that is good for everyone involved When it comes to group work, people can rely on me to do my part If I fail at something, I keep trying I believe that I can be successful in life Questions about emotions I am happy I am frustrated/mad/angry I am stressed/worried I am sad/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school conselor to know?	I have positive relationships with my teachers (I like them and they like me)	Sometimes
If I see someone being picked on or bullied I would try to help that person. When I am stressed, I know how to reduce stress and calm down If I have a problem with a friend, I can figure out a way to solve it that is good for everyone involved When it comes to group work, people can rely on me to do my part If I fail at something, I keep trying I believe that I can be successful in life Questions about emotions I am happy I am stressed/worried I am fustrated/mad/angry I am stressed/worried I am as ad/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that you teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be?	If a friend is sad, I know how to help them feel better	Most of the Time
When I am stressed, I know how to reduce stress and calm down If I have a problem with a friend, I can figure out a way to solve it that is good for everyone involved When it comes to group work, people can rely on me to do my part If I fail at something, I keep trying I believe that I can be successful in life Questions about emotions I am happy I am fustrated/mad/angry I am fustrated/mad/angry I am stressed/worried I am sad/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one strength for the school counselor to know? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	If I do something that upsets someone else, I apologize	Always/Almost Always
If I have a problem with a friend, I can figure out a way to solve it that is good for everyone involved When it comes to group work, people can rely on me to do my part If I fail at something, I keep trying I believe that I can be successful in life Questions about emotions I believe that I can be successful in life Questions about emotions I am happy I am frustrated/mad/angry I am stressed/worried I am sad/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	If I see someone being picked on or bullied I would try to help that person.
When it comes to group work, people can rely on me to do my part If I fail at something, I keep trying I believe that I can be successful in life Questions about emotions I am happy I am stressed/worried I am sad/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I believe I can get good grades a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	When I am stressed, I know how to reduce stress and calm down
If I fail at something, I keep trying I believe that I can be successful in life Questions about emotions I am happy I am fustrated/mad/angry I am starsesed/worried I am sad/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	If I have a problem with a friend, I can figure out a way to solve it that is good for everyone involved
Desileve that I can be successful in life	When it comes to group work, people can rely on me to do my part
Questions about emotions I am happy I am stressed/worried I am sad/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clar goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	If I fail at something, I keep trying
l am stressed/worried l am sad/down/lonely l am stressed/worried l am sad/down/lonely l am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student l write down my assignments in a planner or calendar l complete my homework on time l bring the necessary materials to class with me l ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes l like to come to school l work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes l can keep myself focused at home while I do homework l believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I believe that I can be successful in life
l am stressed/worried l am sad/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	Questions about emotions
I am stressed/worried I am sad/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school chat would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I am happy
I am sad/down/lonely I am calm/relaxed/stress-free Questions about skills about being a good student write down my assignments in a planner or calendar complete my homework on time bring the necessary materials to class with me ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes like to come to school work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time have missing assignments in my classes can keep myself focused at home while I do homework believe I can get good grades have clear goals for my future thave clear goals for my future believe I can go to college if I want to believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me thave people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals do things now that help prepare me for life after high school am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school chat would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I am frustrated/mad/angry
Questions about skills about being a good student	I am stressed/worried
Questions about skills about being a good student I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar Complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I am sad/down/lonely
I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I am calm/relaxed/stress-free
I write down my assignments in a planner or calendar I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	Questions about skills about being a good student
I complete my homework on time I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?
I bring the necessary materials to class with me I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?
I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes I like to come to school I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?
I work hard to be a good student If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I ask questions if I do not understand the lesson or homework in my classes
If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I like to come to school
I have missing assignments in my classes I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I work hard to be a good student
I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework I believe I can get good grades Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school counselor to know?	If I have a test coming up, I start studying several days ahead of time
Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school toknow? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I have missing assignments in my classes
Questions about future I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I can keep myself focused at home while I do homework
I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I believe I can get good grades
I have clear goals for my future I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	Questions about future
I believe I can go to college if I want to I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?
I believe I will one day have a career that interests me and is a good fit for me I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?
I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school I am excited about my future Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?
Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I have people in my life who support me as I work toward future goals
Short Answer What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I do things now that help prepare me for life after high school
What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	I am excited about my future
What is one strength that Jennings Elementary has? What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?	Short Answer
What is one thing you wish that your teacher would know about you? If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?
If you could change one thing about school that would make it more enjoyable what would it be? What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?
What would be helpful for the school counselor to know?
·
	Do you feel a part of the school community? Why or Why not?	